PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRIEST IN RESIDENCE

As we continue our journey through Lent, we approach the central message of the Gospel: Jesus must endure suffering and death for new life to happen. This Sunday, we prepare for the intense period of Jesus' Passion. Intriguingly, some Greeks seek out Jesus during the Passover. This event, as foretold in Is 11:10, signifies that Gentiles are in search of the Messiah. For Jesus, this event is an indication that his Passion is drawing near: "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified."

Jesus employs the metaphor of a grain of wheat falling to the ground to illustrate the fruitfulness of the cross. This signifies that we can't create life without sacrificing our own. We can't instill life in others if we're unwilling to let go of ourselves. Life springs from love and our capacity to give. It's crucial for us to consider how our sacrifices and minor losses bear fruit, and to acknowledge the sacrifices made by others, particularly those made on our behalf.

This presents a profound paradox: The moment of Jesus' death is actually his moment of glory. Confronting death compels us to face the most profound truths of our existence: what we have lived for and how we perceive its meaning.

As Believers we come to comprehend the true nature of Jesus and the depth of God's love through suffering. Our reactions to life's events, both within and beyond our control, shape our character. Some of us find strength and grace in the face of tragedy, illness, injury, or disability, to the extent that we wouldn't opt to evade these challenges. As the Roman philosopher Lucretius noticed, "Observe a man in his moment of adversity and uncertainty, and his response will reveal his true nature."

In this context, John depicts Jesus as someone who faces death with freedom and trust in his Father. When John asserts that the way in which Jesus was "lifted up" symbolized the kind of death He would suffer, he is referring to more than just the cross. He implies that Jesus' death would be a glorification that would draw the entire world into his sphere of freedom and love. Furthermore, Jesus' death would unveil the New Covenant and God's unending love for us as is prophesied in Jeremiah chapter 31. Keep in mind that every time the Eucharist is "elevated" at Mass, we truly behold Jesus. We truly receive him in his Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. Having died with him in baptism, we hope to rise with Him at our "hour", through God's grace.

The famous Swiss theologian, Hans Küng, proposes in his spiritual manifesto, Why I Am Still a Christian, that the church should imitate the "Spirit of the One crucified" by participating in the ongoing struggles that afflict humanity. He outlines the church's role in Jesus' hour and its path to glory as a commitment to ensuring respect for human dignity, freedom, justice, and peace, even to the point of infinite reconciliation.

In essence, every death brings about life, a new beginning. The end of relationships, health, and all that we value often serve as a signal or a wake-up call to a deeper existence. When we love deeply and live fully, we cannot stay away from other people suffering. Love, therefore, demands vulnerability, suffering, compassion, and shared pain. As K. Simonow articulated, "No form of suffering should be foreign to us."

This shared suffering, my dear friends, holds the potential to lead us to salvation and liberation. As we see in the Crucified, standing with those who suffer and sharing their pain brings salvation. May the loving faithfulness of God, demonstrated in Jesus' Cross, bring us peace and hope in our lives. Amen.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS

We are serving 140 people daily from our community and still growing. We are in need of Vienna Sausages, canned meat with pop tabs, Ramen noodles, peanut butter crackers, instant grits, instant oatmeal, pop-tarts and protein bars. Please help in supporting our pantry. We greatly appreciate it.

We are in the process of adding panels and plaques to our memorial wall. The plaques are $150.00. A clear photograph should be emailed to Gwen Whitner and the funds remitted at that time. Checks are to be made payable to St. Anthony Catholic Church and designated for memorial wall plaque in the memo section.

PRINCIPAL'S PURVIEW

I'm happy to report that we have received our first quarterly statement from this fiscal year (July 1, 23-June 30, 24) and our finances look great! As I mentioned during my State of the School Report in November, the diocese has been switching accounting software and because we are using a less than compatible program, it has taken over a year to get all of our historical data transferred over so it is available in the new system.

Our first full week of March has come and gone and we are counting down these last days before our Spring Break begins on Monday, March 18!

When we return from Spring Break, Holy Week will be upon us. Our 3rd-5th grade students will be participating in a retreat on Monday, March 25 dealing with the Spring Cleaning of our lives. This experience is being coordinated with our great friends at St. Joseph Catholic School and led by members of their Theology department, along with upperclassmen. We are grateful for this partnership and the mentor students that visit our campus each week from SJCS.

Finally, our registration process is going well. We've had nearly 35 new students tour for the coming school year and we've begun accepting those students who have applied!

Blessings on your week. ~Chris
