PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

Dear friends, this Sunday, we are celebrating the Feast of Pentecost. This occasion marks the arrival of the Holy Spirit, the inception of the Church, and its mission to spread the Gospel. After the events of Easter — Jesus' crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension to heaven — the Holy Spirit descended upon the world, fulfilling Jesus' promise.

In a transformative event, the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus' disciples, appearing as wind, breath, and fire. This divine gift breathed new life into them, empowering them to share Jesus' Gospel with people speaking diverse languages. This remarkable event not only unified a variety of individuals, embracing diversity and plurality, but also healed divisions, a mission that the Church continues to pursue today. We possess this gift within us, but to actively participate in the process of human redemption, we must fully discover and harness it.

The French philosopher, Teilhard de Chardin, foresaw that one day we would use the power of love for God, just like we've used the power of fire. Pentecost gives us the chance to access this powerful love, a love that burns within us like a flame.

Consider the words of the well-known social activist, Dorothy Day: "I really only love God as much as I love the person I love the least." How well do we embody this sentiment? This deep statement helps us understand that our relationship with God often reflects our relationships with others. If we feel distant from God, it could be because we feel distant from those around us.

So, how can we determine if we've truly experienced Pentecost? If we're striving to resolve conflicts, unite people despite their differences, and foster peace within our families, then we can affirm that the Spirit is with us. Moreover, if we're actively working to eradicate hate speech and 'cancel culture,' while remaining open to different opinions, then we can confidently say that the Spirit of Jesus is alive within us. This is what Pentecost is all about.

As we celebrate Pentecost, let's reflect on our roles as peacemakers and aim to facilitate reconciliation within our community, have we genuinely served as channels of God's peace? Let's take this time to initiate positive changes. We must remember, we are called to embody God's reconciling and joyous presence in the world. This should be our guiding mission within our St. Anthony family, today and always. May the fire of the Holy Spirit burn brightly within you. Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah!

NEWS FROM OUR SCHOOL

On behalf of the students, staff, and families at St. Anthony of Padua School, I would like to thank the members of the St. Anthony Men's Club for their hard work and dedication for hosting a number of events over this past year that produced a $5,000 donation for the school. We are most appreciative of your generosity!

NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK

St. Anthony students and teachers attended their own special parade this past Thursday! We celebrated the good works that our City of Greenville Public Works employees do every day to keep our city beautiful. Ten different pieces of equipment and their drivers parked at the school and each class was able to see how the equipment functioned and learn about its purpose. One fourth grader mentioned "these are the coolest trucks I've ever seen!" It was certainly a great day for our students and we are most grateful for our public works employees!

PRINCIPAL'S PURVIEW

This week's purview will continue to focus on the ministry of the School Advisory Council. The council consists of a number of committees that come together to support the pastor and principal in the work of the school. This week's committee of note is Strategic Planning.

The Strategic Planning committee of the School Advisory Council is responsible for updating the strategic plan for the continuing development and enhancement of the school. The planning process will include the administration, teachers, parents, council members, and parishioners. The plan will seek to address specific issues that impact areas of each council committee. This committee also provides much for the planning and documentation needed for our continuous school accreditation through Cognia. The current chairperson of the Strategic Planning committee is Bill Kirkpatrick.
