It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

HELP FOR THOSE IN NEED

If you are sick at home or in the hospital, have a member of your family notify the parish if you are not able to notify us yourself. We care about you and want to help you when you need help from your church family.

If there is someone you would like to be added on the prayer list OR removed, please contact the Parish Office: 864-233-7717 ext 2.

Thank you!

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

My dear friends, as we come together today to celebrate Trinity Sunday, we are called to reflect on the profound truth of God as three-in-one- the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This truth, the cornerstone of our Christian faith, is more than an abstract concept; it is intended to deeply touch and transform our lives in meaningful ways.

The metaphor of the “circular dance” among the Divine Trio, as depicted by the ancient Cappadocian Fathers, beautifully illustrates our shared journey with God. They believed that God is not only the dancer but the heavenly dance itself. When Jesus, born of the Father and the Holy Spirit, came to us, it was a wondrous journey outward and downward, leading us back to the eternal love and dance that gave us life (cf. Jn 14:3).

In this light, God is like a flowing river of relationships; a Trinity, a life-giving family that invites us to join, savor, and let permeate our very souls. Embracing God as Trinity means recognizing that our interactions across our differences, and our love for one another despite these differences, bring us closer to the heart of God. Conversely, divisions cloud and reject this life within the Trinity.

Our mission here at St. Anthony’s isn’t just about creating a loving and caring diverse community because it’s a good thing to do, but because it draws us nearer to God. Our task is to reflect God’s unity in diversity, a challenging yet deeply rewarding endeavor. To reflect the Triune God, we must nurture diversity in our community, mirroring the continually evolving ethnic and cultural diversity of our world.

Moreover, the Holy Trinity stands as a symbol of diversity without conflict and unity without uniformity, a fundamental principle for all healthy and meaningful relationships. How do we foster unity and diversity in our community? Are we constructing, dismantling, or sabotaging these values?

Unity isn’t about being identical. The unity of our Church does not entail having identical members. It is not about looking, acting, or even believing the same way. Instead, our unity is rooted in our relationship with God through Christ. Our differences enrich our faith community, and none of them hinder our unity, for we are all one in Christ Jesus (cf. Ga 3:28).

The doctrine of the Trinity encourages us to live as a Church in communion with each other, with other churches, and above all, with God. It calls us to rejoice in our unity while embracing diversity and to participate in a mutual, life-enhancing ministry. Each of us has unique gifts to offer and a divine calling to fulfill, guided by the Holy Spirit. Trinity Sunday reiterates our belief: God isn’t solitary but exists within a loving, reciprocal community engaged in a shared mission.

Let’s carry this message with us, living as a reflection of the unity in diversity that lies at the heart of the Holy Trinity. Let’s embrace this challenge and opportunity with open hearts and minds, knowing that through the diversity of our community, we can genuinely reflect the love and unity of God. Peace and all that is good to everyone.

PRINCIPAL'S PURVIEW

This week's purview will continue to focus on the ministry of the School Advisory Council. The council consists of a number of committees that come together to support the pastor and principal in the work of the school. This week's committee of note is the Technology Committee.

The TECHNOLOGY Committee provides technology resources, training, and education to prepare our students to acquire and develop the necessary technology skills for communication, learning and educational advancement. This committee also surveys the needs of our current faculty and staff to gather data on how technology is used in the classroom, what tools the teachers would like to see implemented for instruction, and areas where additional professional development may be needed. The current chairperson of the Technology Committee committee is Rick Floyd.
