PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

Dear friends, in the midst of our fast-paced and hectic modern lives, it is all too easy to forget the most fundamental questions that define our existence: "Why am I here, and what is my purpose?" As spiritual beings on a human journey, we are called to dig deeper into our inner selves and embrace the hidden mysteries of life. When we lose touch with this spiritual dimension, our lives can become shallow and devoid of meaning. We risk falling into a state of superficiality and disconnection from the very essence of our being and from one another. It is common for us to find ourselves merely skimming the surface of life, avoiding the profound questions and emotions that lie within us.

Instead of taking the time to explore our inner selves and seek a deeper purpose, we often get caught up in the daily routines and distractions, and the fleeting attractions at our fingertips. However, when a sense of dissatisfaction starts to settle in, when we feel a yearning for something more, it may be a sign that our souls long for a transformation only the Spirit can bring.

Paul Tillich, a renowned theologian, reminds us that true understanding of life's depth and meaning comes through the guidance of the Spirit. Ignoring this divine gift, as the apostle Paul warns in Ephesians 4:30, means to "grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption," potentially carrying the burden of our errors indefinitely.

The Holy Spirit holds the power to inspire us to rise above the monotonous routines of our daily lives. It can infuse us with the courage to embark on an inner journey of self-discovery, enabling us to find joy amidst challenges and revitalize our existence. Moreover, the Spirit has the ability to teach us to love even those towards whom we currently feel indifference or apathy.

Let us always remember that the Spirit is not merely a force dwelling within us; it is God Himself, guiding and transforming us. It is like a flickering flame that requires our attention and care to keep it alive, purifying and renewing our lives. As we reflect upon the words of the psalmist in Psalm 51:11, let us humbly pray, "Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me."

As we navigate this journey, it is also essential to recognize the importance of community and fellowship. Engaging with others who share similar spiritual goals can provide support, encouragement, and a sense of belonging. Together, we can create a nurturing environment that fosters spiritual growth and collective transformation.

Moreover, let us be mindful of the simple yet profound practices that can help us stay connected to our spiritual selves. Regular prayer, meditation, and acts of kindness, generosity, justice, and care of creation can serve as daily reminders of our higher purpose. These practices can ground us, offering moments of peace and clarity amidst the chaos of everyday life.

May we all find the strength and wisdom to embrace our spiritual journey fully, trusting that the Spirit will guide us towards a life of purpose, fulfillment, and love.
