PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

In this Sunday's Gospel from Mark, we encounter the story of Jesus and His disciples facing a fierce storm while on a boat. The storm rages around them, and their fear grows until they wake Jesus. At this critical moment, Jesus asks, "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?" This question invites us to reflect on our own lives. What "storms" challenge our faith and the unity of our community here at St. Anthony? How do we turn to Jesus to alleviate our fears and work towards unity and resilience?

This narrative is significant not only in our community, where discord and distrust can sometimes prevail, but also resonates throughout history and our ongoing struggles for justice, including the importance of Juneteenth.

Jesus identifies the disciples' fear as a lack of faith. Despite witnessing Jesus perform miracles, the disciples still struggle with doubt and vulnerability during a crisis. However, Jesus calming the storm is a powerful metaphor, showing that faith can overcome fear. It reassures us that even when God's help seems absent or silent, it is always there.

Turning our focus to Juneteenth, a day commemorating the emancipation of enslaved African Americans, we see a testament to the unwavering resilience, faith, and hope. Despite enduring unimaginable hardships, their faith and cause served as a beacon during their darkest hours.

The struggle for justice and equality continues. Acts of violence rooted in racism persist, and we may feel that our individual efforts are small. However, every action, no matter how small, contributes to the broader struggle for justice.

Reflecting on the lasting impact of slavery and our ongoing progress towards social justice, we are reminded of our collective responsibility to create a more just world.

As we commemorate Juneteenth, let us honor those who battled for freedom and justice, and let us commit to establishing a world that cherishes equity, compassion, inclusivity, and fraternity. With these lessons in our hearts, fueled by courage and guided by faith and love, we recognize that storms and crises will arise. But with steadfast faith and perseverance, we can discover peace and comfort amid these challenges, just as Jesus did on that stormy sea, and just as the champions of Juneteenth did.

May the grace of God, my friends, strengthen us in our journey of faith, and may the spirit of Juneteenth inspire us to work towards a world where every person is treated with dignity and respect.

Tip #5 - Donate used items instead tossing!

Did You Know? that when you reuse products, you can help:

- Reduce waste, preventing need to use landfill or incinerators.
- Conserve natural resources and energy used to make, transport, and package new products.
- Reduce the demand for new production and lower the carbon footprint of the manufacturing process.
