PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

This Sunday, we are captivated by the stories of two women who were miraculously healed by Jesus' touch. One is a girl who was brought back from the brink of death, while the other is a woman whose story is embedded within this narrative. She is slowly dying, her condition leaving her socially dead according to Mosaic law, even as she endures a slow, physical death.

Jesus' healing does more than just restore their physical health; it crucially reintegrates them into the community and reinstates their dignity as human beings. Unfortunately, many people we encounter are disconnected from their families, friends, our community and faith. This is the real life-or-death situation we face. Hence, the question arises: are we compassionate enough to act and invite those who are spiritually dormant or dying—or even dead—back to Christ and into the fellowship of his Church? In essence, these stories resonate with a profound truth: faith has the power to heal and restore. "Do not be afraid; just have faith." Can we internalize Jesus' words today? After all, God is the ultimate lover of life.

Picture a young girl on the verge of womanhood, wrestling with the impending shadow of death, standing next to a woman burdened by twelve long years of chronic suffering. These stories go beyond mere miraculous healing; they delve into the profound depths of faith in adversity. So, where do we anchor our faith when faced with overwhelming challenges? How can we incorporate such steadfast faith into our daily lives and our community? The story of the woman with hemorrhages illuminates the hidden wounds that plague our society. Her enduring struggle reflects the ongoing challenges faced by those marginalized due to socio-economic status, race, gender, sexual orientation, disability, and mental health issues. How do we, as a community, react to such deep wounds? Are we active healers or passive observers in this situation?

Remarkably, when this woman, driven by what might have seemed like her last ray of hope, reaches out to touch Jesus' garment, we witness a silent yet potent act of faith. Jesus' acknowledgment of her faith as the catalyst for her healing emphasizes a powerful message: faith is not just a source of personal comfort but a transformative force capable of restoring life and its dignity. Indeed, faith, when expressed through justice and compassion, becomes a healing force.

These stories challenge us to examine the dynamics of our society and church, often tainted by exclusion, marginalization, and division. They prompt us to consider the roles we play in either dismantling or perpetuating these barriers. How can we foster a more inclusive and empathetic community that mirrors the compassion and acceptance and restoration demonstrated by Jesus?

Our mission, dear friends, is to evolve into the best versions of ourselves, reflecting the image of Jesus, our goal and model for becoming a true and perfect image of humanity. How will we respond to this call? May the healing touch of Jesus mend us and bring our community at St. Anthony closer together, as we stand as part of God's true family. With love in Christ, my friends, warm greetings from Peru.
